

Administered by the Rhode Island Office of Energy Resources (OER) in partnership with the community action agencies or CAPs, the HEAR program is providing low-income Rhode Islanders with rebates to upgrade electrical wiring, install new electrical panels and replace existing gas stoves and clothes dryers with efficient electric alternatives. The moderate-income pathway will launch next year. OER is recruiting electricians to complete wiring, panel, and appliance upgrades and pipefitters to cap gas lines.

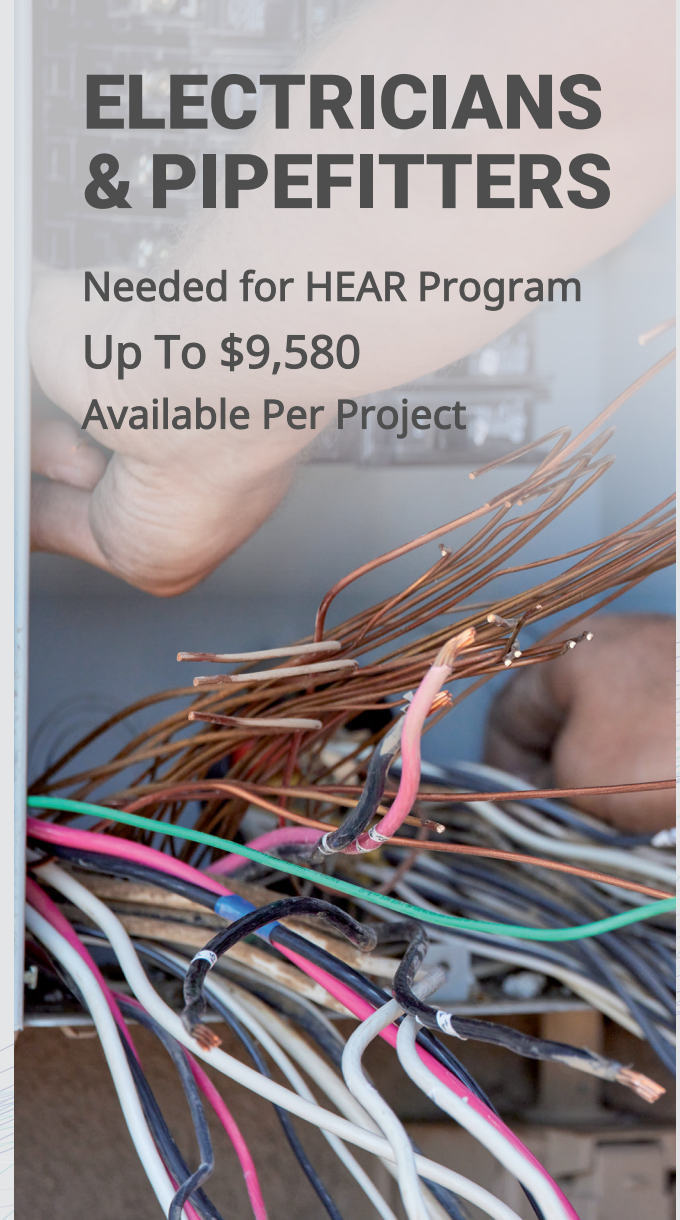

To learn more about our Home Energy Rebate Programs, scan the QR code.

1 Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908
energy.ri.gov

ELECTRICIANS & PIPEFITTERS

Needed for HEAR Program
Up To $9,580
Available Per Project

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND
OFFICE OF ENERGY RESOURCES

Home Electrification and Appliance Rebate (HEAR)
Program

How to Participate:

Step 1: Register with State Purchasing (Ocean State Procures) at ridop.ri.gov/ocean-state-procures-osp

Step 2: Email Energy.HEAR@energy.ri.gov with the following:

- ☑ Company name, contact person, phone, and email
- ☑ Photocopy of Electrician or Pipefitters license
- ☑ Proof of Insurance (valid and complaint with insurance requirements listed on HEAR website)

Step 3: Digitally sign Contractor Agreement Forms with CAPs

- ☑ OER will send you the Agreement Forms and you can choose what CAPs you work with.

Low-Income Program Max Rebates Covering Parts, Labor & Fees:

ELECTRIC WIRING

Up to $2,500

ELECTRIC LOAD
SERVICE CENTER

Up to $4,000

ENERGY STAR HEAT
PUMP CLOTHES DRYER
OR ELECTRIC STOVE/
INDUCTION COOKTOP

Up to
$2,680

BONUSES AVAILABLE:

Electricians can receive BONUSES of $250 for the installation or new wiring and $150 for the installation of a new panel, per dwelling unit.